Subject: Free Volunteer Screening Checks

View this email in your browser

Dear Principals, Presidents, Secretaries, and Committee Members,

I am pleased to inform you that organisations and individuals across Newland will be able to access free screenings for volunteers from 1 November 2018 – a key election commitment promised and delivered by the Marshall Liberal Government.

Currently, South Australians are paying $59.40 for volunteer screenings – the highest application fee in Australia.

Having met with many of you over previous months, I have seen firsthand the incredible dedication and selfless hard work of volunteers in our community.

For some organisations, the abolition of volunteer screening fees could save thousands of dollars a year. That is money that will be back in the pockets of community organisations, including sporting clubs and charities, as well as emergency services.

The move will also remove barriers for individuals wanting to volunteer and I hope it encourages the next generation of volunteers to get involved.

To apply for a free screening check (from 1 November 2018) or for more information, visit www.screening.sa.gov.au.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Richard Harvey MP
