

Applicant profile

2025

To apply for any teaching positions for the 2025 school year you'll be required to complete an applicant profile. In your profile you'll be asked to provide the below:

- Personal details
- Qualifications
- Teaching subjects and skills
- Employment history
- Answers to 3 capability questions

Your profile is your opportunity to highlight the key qualities that make you an impactful teacher in the classroom who supports students to learn and thrive.

The profile focuses on your skills and teaching practice; therefore you only need to complete the profile once. Once completed you can upload your profile to any jobs you wish to apply for.

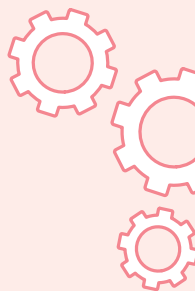

Alongside your profile you'll also upload a positioning statement which will be tailored to the position you're applying for.

Your applicant profile and positioning statement will be used by school leaders as they undertake their selection processes.

All teaching positions will be advertised via Edjobs. As you progress through the application process, you'll be able to upload both your applicant profile and positioning.

Quick tips

- To apply for any teaching positions you'll need to provide your applicant profile and positioning statement.
- You only need to complete 1 applicant profile. You can then upload your profile to any positions you apply for.
- There is a 3000 character limit per written response.
 - » We suggest developing your responses in a Microsoft Word document which will allow you to monitor the character count.
- All teaching positions will be advertised via Edujobs.
